C5           G5
  Back in 1991
                    A5
I wasn t havin  any fun
                              B5
 Till my roommate said  Come on
                            C
And put a brand new record on
               G5
Had a baby on it
                A5
He was naked on it
                               B5
Then I heard the chords that broke
                       C5
The chains I had upon me
                       G5
Got together with my bros
```

```
                      A5
In some rehearsal studios
                                 B5
Then we played our first rock show
                                     C5
And watched the fan base start to grow
                                 G5
Signed the deal that gave the dough
                        A5
To make a record of our own
                       B5
The song come on the radio
