Verse

C                F                                C             G
I would throw myself underneath the wheels of any train of thought
C                      F                   C                G
roaming the rails or sailing through the roadways of your brain
   C               F              C                 G
If I could bring a light to shine upon the dark and disobey
    C                  F                     C       G
the night so young, but I still say we re too old for cliches

Chorus

F                              Em                   Am     Am7/G  D
Oh, and I can only dream of the dreams we d share if you were so inclined
C       G       F             Am   F6      C
I would love to be the one to open up your mind

Verse 2

C               F               C                          G
I could base my whole existence upon the cherry strands of your gold hair
    C            F                  C                     G
and I would ask, almost insist upon treating you kind and fair

Chorus

    F                         Em                        Am          Am7/G
Oh, I could only dream of the dreams we d have, how our hearts would be D           C         G      F             Am   F6      C entwined if you would let me be the one to open up your mind

C            F                  C              G
I d still be myself beneath the banks unbroken beside the stream
