Matter of time

Intro: A9-G-D(6x)

```
  A9                    G    D
Its all just a matter of time

             A9             G-D
between the days and the nights

         A9          G-D
from a child being born

           A9         G-D
and the taking of a life

G-D-A9       G-D-A9
And you ll see

             G-D-A9
And you ll see

        G-D
It will be

         A9                    G-D
But its all just a matter of time

            A9          G-D
Till whats new becomes old
```

```
              A9           G-D
Until what s good becomes bad

               A9        G-D
Until what s bought is sold

G-D-A9    G-D-A9
It will be

         G-D-A9
It will be

           C-D
And you ll see

A9-F-G               A9-F-G
So just close your eyes

                 A9-F-G
and wait for a while

                       A9-F-G
Tommorow is still one whole day

            A9-F-G
So don t despair

             A9-F-G
So Whats in your head

                   A9-F-G
Will forever be washed away

Adlib:C-Em-D
      C-G-Em-D
      C-G-Em
      C-G-Em-D

           A9                    G-D
Cause its all just a matter of time

                  A9        G   D
til what you ve done gets erased

          A9        G-D
til love lost returns

                   A9        G  D
til what you ve broken is replaced
```
