5 Seconds Of Summer

[Intro] F G   Em   F

F   G   Em
Can t help but wondering if this
              F
Is the last time that I ll see your face
F   G   Em
Is it tears or just the fucking rain?
       F
Wish I could say something
F   G   Em
Something that doesn t sound insane
            F
But lately I don t trust my brain
F   G   Em
You tell me I won t ever change
      F
So I just say nothing

F   G
No matter where I go
    Em   F
I m always gonna want you back
F   G
No matter how long you re gone
      Em   F
I m always gonna want you back
F   G
I know you know
Em   F
I will never get over you
F   G
No matter where I go
Em   F
I m always gonna want you back

Want you back

F   G
I remember the freckles on your back
 Em   F
And the way that I used to make you laugh
F   G
Cause you know every morning I wake up
Em   F
Yeah, I still reach for you
F   G   Em

```
I remember the roses on your shirt
                   F
When you told me this would never work
 F                   G
You know, even when I say I moved on
Em            F
Yeah, I still dream for you

 F          G
No matter where I go
    Em                    F
I m always gonna want you back
F            G
No matter how long you re gone
    Em                   F
I m always gonna want you back
F        G
I know you know
Em              F
I will never get over you
F          G
No matter where I go
Em                        F
I m always gonna want you back

F                        G
You know even when I say I moved on

You know even though I know that you re gone
F                    G                      Em          F
All I think about is where I went wrong
F                    G
You know even when I say I moved on
Em                        F
You know even though I know that you re gone
F                    G
All I think about is where I went wrong
Em              F
Yeah I still dream for you

F          G          Em                        F
No matter where I go I m always gonna want you back
 F          G
No matter where I go
    Em                    F
I m always gonna want you back
F            G
No matter how long you re gone
    Em                    F
