77 Bombay Street - 47 Millionaires

Verse:

Em G D
47 Millionaires on a ship with marble squares, licking up their lollipops,
A C
no one ever interrupts
Em G D
47 Millionaires on a ship with marble squares, playing with their teddy bears,
A C Em
talking bout the rising fares
Em G D
47 Millionaires on a ship with marble squares, whistling to their favorite song,
A C
dancing, loughing, all night long

47 Millionaires on a ship with marble squares, praying to the morning sun,
A C Em
talking with their golden tongue

And I wished I was one of them, and I wished I was one of them

D C Em
If I could be a millionaire

Em G D
47 Millionaires on a ship with marble squares, there was a wave, that killed

where nasty pleasures never end
