

Another Song About The Weekend
A Day to Remember

[Verse 1]

C F
They keep playing sad songs on the radio
C
And I feel like I m so alone
G
On this 15 hour drive
C F
And all the while I tell myself to just believe
C
Cause nobody can give so much
G
And never get anything
(never get anything)

[Pre-Chorus]

Am
Everyone I used to know
C
says they don t know what i ve become
F
But I m still the same

Not much has changed
C G
I still know where I came from

[Chorus]

C
I fell asleep with the lights on
F Am
And I can see that you re the first one in a long time.
G F
That had some faith in me
(have faith in me)
C
I tell my friends, it won t be long
F
Before it s time for me to come back home
Am G F
It feels like I m ready for anything

If you can wait for me.

[Verse 2]

C F
And all the while I say too much of what I think
C G
And I can't remember what it's like to find meaning in anything
For the life of me

[Pre-Chorus]

Am
Everyone I used to know
C
says they don't know what I've become
F
But I'm still the same
Not much has changed
C G
I still know where I came from Am C
And all I ever wanted was so far from what I need
F C G
I'll write my songs. so sing along. I know time heals everything

[Chorus]

C
I fell asleep with the lights on
F Am
And I can see that you're the first one in a long time.
G F
That had some faith in me
(have faith in me)
C
I tell my friends, it won't be long
F
Before it's time for me to come back home
Am G F
It feels like I'm ready for anything
If you can wait for me.
