

Its Complicated
A Day to Remember

No one has put the acoustic chords for it, so I might as well do it! This song is easy to play, perfect for beginners, too. Reminder that this is an acoustic version that I put together by ear. Enjoy! ^-^

Verse 1:

D
Here we go again
G
Another night of being bummed
Bm
I keep to myself, avoid society
A
And cancel plans with everyone
D G
I know cause it is always how it ends
Bm
Our bond will break cause you can't relate
A
To anyone, to anything at all

Pre-Chorus:

G A Bm
You brought your worst and now I'm right here
A (RING)
Now I've seen it all

And it's never been so clear

Chorus:

D A
You're not the person that I knew back then
Bm
It's all too late to set things straight cause
A
Everything has been
D A
You're not the person that I knew back then
Bm
Let's try and act like this didn't happen
A (RING)
Follow your friends like you ever had them
