A D A
I laid down by the river's edge

A D A
I laid down wondering where it led

A D A
I laid down by the river's edge

F#m D A
And I woke up in a river bed

A D A
There were flowers in my hair

A D A
River flowers floating everywhere

A D A
And all the fishes came and kissed my feet

F#m D A
Dear old fishes, they said to me

C#m F#m
They said oh, we could love you

D A
But we are not yet what you want

C#m F#m
Because oh, anyone could love you

D A
You've got to find where you belong

A D A
All my needles, they were gone so fast

A D A
Not a needle left on a branch

A D A
I grew weaker and the river strong

F#m D A
I said, hey fishes But the fish were gone

A D A

Now the boulders I know they heard me cry

A D A

But they were stone-faced and they stood aside

A D A

So I went on at the river's pace

F#m D A

With my eyes closed, I thought I heard them say

C#m F#m

They said oh, we could love you

D A

But we are not yet what you want

Because oh, we would only crush you
