

Swan Song

A Fine Frenzy

(capo 1^a casa)

(intro) C (C Dm Gm F) (2x) C

C Am
Wretched, look at me, I've lost it, melting on the table
F
In parking lots and markets
C Am
I can't help it, I love you like a starfish loves the salty water
F C
Like a selfish daughter

Am F
Yet I wrote the words to the swan song
C F
The author of the wrong
Am F
And I said what I said and I meant it
C F C Dm
But now I regret it

C Am
Foolish, how was I so careless, pawning off my treasure,
F
The envy of an heiress
C Am
Now my dollars are crumbled in my pocket, how can I reclaim it?
F C
What if someone's got it?

Am F
When I wrote the words to the swan song
C F
The author of the wrong
Am F
And I said what I said and I meant it
C F
But now I regret it

(C Dm Gm F) (2x)

Gm Bb F
How could the world have turned so ugly
Bb
I am dying
Gm

Could you touch me again?

C F

Touch me again

Am

F

When I wrote the words to the swan song

C

F

The author of the wrong

Am

F

And I said what I said and I meant it

C

F

But now I regret it