

Living At The End Of The World

A-Ha

[Intro] D D6 D A

Sometimes it leaves me with fear
Never saw the horizon this near
Look to the left then to the right
I tuck you in and kiss you goodnight
See there is something I know
We are not whom we re told
We are more than we ll never know
And we re living at the end of the world
Forget about all that you ve heard
Living our dreams on the highway
It s just another day
No matter what they say or you ve heard
We re living on top of the world
We re living our dreams on the highway
No matter what they say
It s just another day
I hear your heart beat in the night
You are like an echo of light
But in times when shallow runs deep
Your golden beauty goes cheap
Still there is something I know
Something yet to unfold
