

When Im Gone
A Rocket To The Moon

[VERSE 1]

C

The telephone is ringing in the afternoon

F

I was talking to your mother--about you

C

Yeah we were talking bout you

She said you were in the garden where the sunshine blooms

C

I can see you in the front lawn

F

C

When I m gone, my heart is with you

F

G

And when I m gone, my heart is with you

[PRE-CHORUS]

F

G

F#

And I know, I know I ll always be thinking, thinking about

F

G

I hope you know I always call you my home

[CHORUS]

F

G

Am

Dm

It don t matter where I m going or what I do

F

G

C

I always come back, I always come back to you

F

G

Am

Dm

And I ve got this funny feeling that I ll be seeing you soon

F

G

C

I always come home, I always come home to you

[VERSE]

C

I live by the freeway on a fabric bench

I wonder when the next that time I ll be fed

F

C

I m fed up, I m fed up with this

You re probably sleeping in your plastic house

C

I can see you in the front room

F

C

When I m gone, my heart is with you

F

G

And when I m gone, my heart is with you

[PRE-CHORUS]

F

G

F#

I know, I know I ll always be thinking, thinking about

F

G

I hope you know I always call you my home

[CHORUS]

F

G

Am

Dm

It don t matter where I m going or what I do

F

G

C

I always come back, I always come back to yo

F

G

Am

Dm

And I ve got this funny feeling that I ll be seeing you soon

F

G

C

I always come home, I always come home to you

[PRE-CHORUS]

F

G

F#

And I know, I know I ll always be thinking, thinking about

F

G

I hope you know I ll always call you my home

[CHORUS]

F

G

Am

Dm

It don t matter where I m going or what I do

F

G

C

I always come back, I always come back to you

F

G

Am

Dm

And I ve got this lovely feeling that I ll be seeing you soon

F

G

C

Cause I m coming home, I m coming home to you