Cuckoo Song

A Silent Film

I wonâ€™t be your cuckoo, my love
Nor a thief on the wing
A shameful regret
Or a promise on a string
And I will follow your heart
Until you let me in
Iâ€™ll never be your cuckoo, my love
I wonâ€™t be a lesson learned in spring

(C), G, Em, C

C, G, Em, D

C, G, Am, Em

C, G, D

Donâ€™t be a cuckoo, my love
If you ever want to know
The beat of your heart
Or the depth of your soul
And I will colour my life
With the courage that youâ€™ve shown me
To never be a cuckoo, my love

C G Em C

Oh, I will take this wish and bury it in the sno-o-o-ow

C, G, Em, D

C, G, Am, D

C, G, D

G (extended)

D

The river you didnâ€™t cross

D

Em

Grows deeper every day

Em

C

And for the rest of my life

C

G

Are you the one that got away?

G

D

â€™Fore we grow old

D

Em

Will you show me the depths of your soul?

Em

C

Though we clip your wings

C

C G Em C

Well I will build a home with the courage that you have sho-o-o-own

C, G, Em, D

C, G, Am, Em

C, G, D

C

G

So put down your bow and arrow

Em

C

â€™Cause time is on our side

C

G

And I will be here in the morning

Em

C

If there are fireworks tonight

C

G

Is this the calm before the storm?

Am

Em

The design is in your eyes

C

G

Iâ€™ll never be a cuckoo, my love

C

G

Oh, I will take this wish and bury it in the snow

C

G

And I will build a home with the courage that you have shown

C

G

And I will take this wish and bury it in the snow

D

If you cross this river

G

Iâ€™m yours and yours alone
