

Witness Blues

AA Bondy

Just listen to the song a few times to get it right.

G C
Come out to the edge where it is quiet
D G
Where the ink will drain right out of you
G C
Far below, the sea and its convictions
D G
Get broken by the beach out of your view

C G
And once there was a time to join the army
C G
And once there was a time to hear the news
C G
And once there was a time for easy silence
D G
But now the jury waits for you

G C
You re caught between the mirror and the country
D G
And caught up in a prayer of liars words
G C
The hounds are on your scent, you must move swiftly
D G
Their spies just tellin lies of what they heard

C G
And once there was a time to join the army
C G
And once there was a time to hear the news
C G
And once there was a time for easy silence
D G
But now the jury waits for you

G C
So make yourself a mask of chrome and heartaches
D G

And give yourself a hand to turn away

G C
Once you heard a choir when you were dreamin

D G
And you wish you could remember it today

C G
And once there was a time to join the army

C G
And once there was a time to hear the news

C G
And once there was a time for easy silence

D G
But now the jury waits for you
