My mama always told me

G

Son, you d best go easy down that road

D9

And she said she was sorry

G

For all the times she couldn t save my soul

A4

G

Shoulda listened to her words a little more

A4

G

Before I packed up and I walked right out that door

D9

Daddy always told me

G

Son, you d better love the best you can

D9

And Don t look back and be sorry

G

These moments won t be comin round again

A4

G

But I feel like I could conquer the whole world

A4

G

When I look up and see those three little girls

D9

A4

But I get lost, I can t find my way

G

D9

All my pieces glued together for the world to see

D9

A4

Mistakes I ve made, consumed by some

G

D9

Till there s nothing left of me when all is said and done

D9

Now a preacher man once told me

G

Son, I m not so sure you can be saved

D9

And he said, Life is full of choices

G

And He sees all the bad ones that you ve made

A4

G

And I said Yeah, you re right, I ll probably go to Hell

A4

G

But goddamn all the stories I can tell

D9

A4

Cause I m so lost, I can t find my way

G

D9

All my pieces glued together for the world to see

D9

A4

Mistakes I ve made, consumed by some

G

D9

Till there s nothing left of me when all is said and done

D9

So my mama always told me

G

Son, you d best go easy down that road
