Aaron Lewis - Red White And Blue

I m not completly sure about the intro, solo and outro part, so you have to play what you feel is fitting. But the rest should be ok.

G D A D
My Grandmama worked at the factory floor
G D A
Sewing leather for minimum wage
G D A D
While my granddaddy worked all the beer joints in town
G D A
Tryin to forget the memories he made

Em G
Cus when daddy was born, in 1945
D A
We d been fighthing for what we believed
Em G
Along with 5 other brothers, who stood by his side
D A
They were ready, they were willing to bleed
G A D
Red, white and blue

G D A D
Those colors mean something, those colors stay true
G D A D
Like my family before me, I feel it too
G D A D
The blood that s in my veins, runs red white and blue

G D A D
My daddy grew up, on the wrong side of poor
G D A
Rubbing nickels together for heat

G D A D
Well he and his sister, had barely got by
G D A
With the clothes and the shoes on their feet

Em G
So he joined the service, when he was 18
D A
Like his daddy and his uncles before
Em G
He was ready to die. for what he believed
D A
To fight for, what s worth fighting for
G A D
Red, white and blue

G D A D
Those colors mean something, those colors stay true
G D A D
Like my family before me, I feel it too
G D A D
The blood that s in my veins, runs red white and blue

SOLO PART

G D A D
G D A A

G D A D
Well me and my sisters, got kids of our own
G D A
And my brother s coming up on 16
G D A D
And my daddy taught us all, how to live off the land
G D A
And how to stand up for what we believe
G A D
Red, white and blue

G D A D
Those colors mean something, those colors stay true
G D A D
Like my family before me, I feel it too
G D A D
The blood that s in my veins, runs red white and blue

G D A D
Like my family before me, I feel it too

G	D	A	D
The	blood	that	s
in	my	veins,	runs
red	white	and	blue

G	D	A	D
The	blood	that	s
in	my	veins,	runs
red	white	and	blue
