

Go On Yourself

Aaron Wright And The Aprils

Go On Yourself - Aaron Wright
from the album: Behold The Pale Horse

If you put a capo on fret 2 and play it all 2 semitones down it s easier to do open chords but the intonation s so terrible on my guitar i have to play barre chords. The auto transcribe at the top right should do it for you. If i ve made any lyric errors please comment

E B
There s a simple explanation for those who refuse to win,

A C#m
There s a carnival collector who just won t let me in,

F#m A
There s a silence beneath her street light, there s a whisper in the wind

F#m A F#m (sliding up to A)
you took me in, you took me in, you took me in

B E A B
don t know where i ve been

E B
There s a carpenter in your classroom he s been screaming at the scribe,

A C m
There s an undeserving teacher who noone knew had died

F#m A
well a poet, who s friend was a painter, yet a hero was left unsung

F#m A F#m (sliding up to A)
They took me in, they took me in, they took me in

B E A B
don t know where i ve been

Chorus:

E
Half of the time you know you re asking why, thinking the things that don t feel quite right

A E A B
go on yourself, go on yourself

E
Half of the nights you know we sleep ok so think of the things I don t know quite what to say

A B E
go on yourself, go on yourself

E B
Never claimed to see the future well I barely had a past

C#m

so we went to see a psychic she said that nothing really lasts

F#m

A

so i ll stop pokin at them coals now i m off to start a fire

F#m

F#m (sliding up to A)

you took me in, you took me in, you took me in
