Abandoning Sunday

[Intro]

A E F#m E A

A E F#m E A

[Verse 1]

A E F#m
Stealing my breath when I need it the most

E A
And words are still too hard to find

E F#m E A
And there s things that I m needing to say

A E F#m
With all I ve got left in this lump in my throat

E A
Of things that I can t keep denying

E F#m E D
And chances I m dying to take

[Chorus]

A E
But when it all goes to hell and I m left alone

F#m E D
With nothing but memories of you in my arms

A E
God how it kills to hold you so close

F#m E D F#m E
But know in my heart what I feel in my bones

[Verse 2]

A E F#m
Breaking my heart with the way that you smile

E A
Laughter that melts through my soul

E F#m E A
And you are everything I don t deserve

A E F#m
Falling apart with your hands laced to mine

E A
And praying you ll never let go

E F#m E D
Forever hold onto the way that we were

[Chorus]

A E
But when it all goes to hell and I m left alone

F#m E D
With nothing but memories of you in my arms

God how it kills to hold you so close
But know in my heart what I feel in my bones

[Instrumental]

Bm F#m A E
Bm F#m E

[Bridge]

Darling I know you think we re fine
And oh how I wish you were right
But I m prone to break the things I love

[Chorus]

So when it all goes to hell and I m left alone
With nothing but memories of you in my arms
God how it kills to hold you so close
But know in my heart what I feel in my bones

[Outro]

And I ve prayed so hard I don t die here alone
And swear that you ll never let me let go
