

Like An Angel Passing Through My Room
Abba

Chords: C F Gm

Long awaited darkness falls, casting shadows on the walls
In the twilight hour I am alone, sitting near the fireplace Dying embers warm my face. In this peaceful solitude, all
The outside world subdued. And it all comes back to me Tonight, in the gloom. Like an angel passing through my room.

Half awake and half in dreams
Seeing long forgotten scenes
So the present runs into the past
Now and then become entwined
Playing games within my mind
Like the embers as they die
Love was one prolonged goodbye
And it all comes back to me tonight
In the gloom
Like an angel passing through my room

I close my eyes And my twilight images go by all too soon
Like an angel passing through my room.
