

Sound Of Your Name
Above the Golden State

Received these chords from Michael, lead singer/guitarist of the band, so you can know are right. The strum pattern is pretty interesting, but if you listen to the song it s to pick-up. Good luck and God Bless.
(A list of chord fingerings are at the bottom)

Only You remain, only You remain.

2ND VERSE (same chord pattern as first verse):

I cried and cried,

A thousand tears I cried because of You,

I lost my one excuse...

And I had to die,

Along with everything inside of me removed,

But now I live with you...
