Time is a tunnel, weâ€™re going through
Forget all about it if you feel good
From the end of the tunnel to the point of no return

When I will get there then Iâ€™ll know
If this is a blessing that comes to show
If you want some answers, look at the sky turn blue

Sing is all I can do
To get an overview
This is all that I am
I speak loud but I try to understand
Every aspect of life
Every aspect of you
And maybe I get fooled by the beauty of you
