G B A G
Tell myself, on the ride home.

B A G
Getting tired, hating all I ve known.

B A G
Holding on, like it s all I have.

B A G A
Count me out, when it s clear that I, find it hard to say.

G A
And you, find it hard to care.

D B A G
I wanted to see something that s different, something you said would change
D in me.

B
A G E
Wanted to be, anything different, everything you would change in me.

G B A G
Got this way, upfront but never true.

B A G
God I m wrong, it s just the way I am.

B A G
Crashing down, any chance you hear.

B A G A
Caving in, any chance that you, could see inside of me.

G A G
And I don t know what to say, It s fine.

A
This isn t Hollywood.

G A
So fine, getting in your way.

D B A G
I wanted to see something that s different, something you said would change
D

in me.

 B A G
Wanted to be, anything different, everything you would change in me.
