Adam Arcuragi Adam Arcuragi INTRO: С \mathbf{F} C р Well I am in love with something invisible F C am And though no one can make sense of where it s from, D I m sure as all my bones C D So lay my head and feet to point north and south F С am I will try to be a compass if you smile D and deign to take me home \mathbf{F} С I will lay on the bottom of that river D am Spending my time where old sorts go to die F С Engulf the fish at the bottom of that river Lift a song into the night amol D So that the moon won't have to die С D I will collect all the hammers and I will make them ring F С am When the slowly swollen eyes are not enough С D And I will walk down the road until I can hear her sing F C am She can pass her coded message through my clothes And assure me that she's sure \mathbf{F} С I will lay on the bottom of that river F am D Spending my time where old sorts go to die F C Engulf the fish at the bottom of that river \mathbf{F} C Lift a song into the night D am

С D Well come up slow And drag your voice out into the light \mathbf{F} С am D With the rough cover it provides you to shine D С Now here we go down the hill fast faster no keel no bow F C am Though you can smell them in my blood, forget the start D Cause they're all dead by now

FCI will lay on the bottom of that riverFam DSpending my time where old sorts go to dieFCEngulf the fish at the bottom of that riverFCLift a song into the nightamDSo that the moon won't have to die

I hope you like it, peace!
