INTRO:
B   E

B   C#
Well I am in love with something invisible
        E   B   am
And though no one can make sense of where it s from,
                    C#
I m sure as all my bones
B   C#
So lay my head and feet to point north and south
      E   B   am
I will try to be a compass if you smile
                  C#
and deign to take me home

E   B
I will lay on the bottom of that river
                E   am   C#
Spending my time where old sorts go to die
    E   B
Engulf the fish at the bottom of that river
          E   B
Lift a song into the night
                  amol   D
So that the moon wonâ€™t have to die

B   C#
I will collect all the hammers and I will make them ring
  E   B   am
When the slowly swollen eyes are not enough
B   C#
And I will walk down the road until I can hear her sing
  E   B   am
She can pass her coded message through my clothes
                    C#
And assure me that sheâ€™s sure

E   B
I will lay on the bottom of that river
E   am   C#
Spending my time where old sorts go to die
E   B
Engulf the fish at the bottom of that river
E   B
Lift a song into the night
am   D

So that the moon won't have to die

B   C#
Well come up slow And drag your voice out into the light
E   B   am   C#
With the rough cover it provides you to shine
         B   C#
Now here we go down the hill fast faster no keel no bow
E   B   am
Though you can smell them in my blood, forget the start
                          C#
Cause they're all dead by now

E   B
I will lay on the bottom of that river
E   am C#
Spending my time where old sorts go to die
E   B
Engulf the fish at the bottom of that river
E   B
Lift a song into the night
am   D
So that the moon won't have to die

I hope you like it, peace!
