I m in trouble like a dirty stinking jew

Pepe Le Pew singing What can I do?

Still I go on vacations

And act like the queen of injustice

And the girl on the subway who sleeps on her back

And she s got to relax

When I speak of the pleasures of silence

I want to play, who threw my toys away

And gave me coffee, who wants some coffee?

I m in business on the wrong side of your bay

My heart be still, white light deploy at will

My little brother, I want another

Come together now for one enchanting thrill
