SONG TITLE: Listenin To The Radio
ALBUM:
TRANSCRIBED BY: *

CHORDS:

-----
EADGBE
F (133211)
G (320003) or (320033)
C (x32010)
Cmaj7 (x32000)

Easy song, rather boring, I only did it because it was a request.
Good lyrics though.

The picking part that s used throughout the song goes like this:

	F	G	C	Cmaj7
E	-----	-----	-----	-----
B	-----	-----	-----	-----0-----
G	-----0-----	-----0-----	-----0-----	-----
D	-----	-----0-----	-----2-----	-----
A	-----3-----	-----3-----	-----3-----	-----

This picking pattern is used in a lot of places in the song, you ll hear it. The chords through most of the song are F G C Cmaj7 , you can always use this picking stuff on those chords. Then he strums Am C at the beginning of the choruses, that s the whole song. I just strum all the chords, it sounds good to me.

INTRO: [play with picking pattern above]

VERSE 1:

-----
F G C Cmaj7
Where s my Peggy Sue?

F          G      C Cmaj7
I could use a Rosalita
                  F                  G                  C Cmaj7
If there s a Long Tall Sally out there
                  F                  G      C Cmaj7
I m dyin to meet her
                  F                  G                  C Cmaj7
Why can t I hear Beth callin me?
                  F                  G                  C      Cmaj7
Why can t I be the one to make Sara smile?
                  F                  G                  C      Cmaj7
I wish I was arm in arm with Jean genie
                  F                  G      C Cmaj7
Walkin down the aisle
                  F      G      C Cmaj7
Oh yeah
                  F      G      C Cmaj7
All right

CHORUS:

-----

Am
