C Am
Born in 1935 in Brooklyn New York

C Am
The son of Anna and Phil

C Am
At 19 years old he married my mother Judy

G F
And immediately paid his first Bloomingdales bill

C Am
Right away they started on a family

C Am
3 smart kids popped out of mom s tummy

C Am
But then one steamy night Dad forgot to wear his raincoat

G F
9 months later, out came the dummy

C Am
Dad was 6 foot 2 and 250 pounds

C Am
And was sweet as he was strong

C Am
He was also known to be pretty well endowed

G F
But believe me he didn t pass that one along

I did get grandma s ass though

C Am
Oh, Stan the man was my hero

C Am
With a golf swing that made men cry

C Am
He d take their money and put it in his top drawer

G F
Then I d steal it so I could get high

F~~~~~ C
But he beat that habit out of me

C Am
Oh, dad thanks for letting me stay up late to watch Johnny Carson

C Am
Thanks for swimming with me at Livingston park

C Am
Thanks for telling me to always to punch a kid in the face

G F
If he made an anti-Semitic remark

C Am
And say hi to both my grandmas and grandpas

C Am
And tell my dog meatball I miss him so

C Am
But most important dad, take advantage of being in heaven

G Am F~~~~~
Go bang Marilyn Monroe; Mom said its cool, just wear a raincoat

C Am
Oh, Stan the man was my hero

C Am
He still is and always will be

C Am
Cause he didn t give too much of crap about nothing

G F
Except loving his family

C G F
Oh, Stan the man is gone

C~~~~~
But will always live on
