Verse 1:

E

Hello, my chum

C#m

It s me and I m banging on your door

В

It s been far too long

Α

Since we set the leaves alight down on the floor

Е

I ve returned for a while

C#m

To the concrete that once claimed my knees

В

And the stones my hands owned

Α

As I sent them toward windows and trees

Middle 8:

F#m

Towering trees

B - B7 - E

Towering trees

Verse: 2

E

There are bangers in the wheely bins

C#m

Lazer pens shone through the glass

В

And BB after BB fired

Α

From behind the wall beyond the grass

And though boots met my face
                                         C#m
And knuckles cracked me black as coal
I care not for the mindless
Who poked fear at my sorry soul
Middle 8:
   F#m
My soul
    В
             в7
My soul
Verse 3:
And I miss the rain on the roof
                                    C#m
Pitstop paths and whistling streams
I miss the Coldstream chips
The red subbuteo team painted green
Built on back fields,
                              C#m
It seemed a thorn in my child side
Instead became a grit-soaked playground
Where the propers and the poor collide
Bridge:
Oh, it might sound dull
                                  C#m
But dull s sometimes all we have
Yeah, it might sound dull
But dull s all we ever have
Refrain:
Sometimes I talk with the meter
Of a bingo caller s east-end drawl
Who cares; we re all just trying to float

While everything seems set to fall

Middle 8:

F#m

So hard

в - в7

So hard

Ending play C#m (PM) once then into fret noise in time with the drum.
