

Fighting My Way Back
After Midnight Project

G#m

Standing on the corner in the city

E

It s feeling like prison

G#m

E

Tried to hold us both but you got away

G#m

I could have been a lover, could have been a fighter

E

But I didn t know how

G#m

E

And every time you cried I had nothing to say

F#

But I m coming back

E

Holding you to your words

G#m

F#

You said All I had to do is try

C#m

G#m

F#

I m fighting my way back to you

C#m

G#m

F#

They can try and stop me but I ll break through

C#m

G#m

F#

I m fighting my way back to you

E

G#m

E

G#m F#

I m taking back, what I gave away

G#m

I m tracing all the word that I couldn t say

E

on the window

G#m

E

All this frost stays as cold as I am

G#m

I could have been a lover, could have been a fighter

E

But I didn t know how

F#

E

Please wait for me, you better wait for me

(Chorus)

Bridge: G#m F# E x3 then Eb E F#

G#m

I could have been a lover, could have been a fighter

E

But I didn t know how

(Chorus)

C#m G#m F#

I m fighting my way back to you

C#m G#m F#

I m fighting my way back to you

E G#m E F#

I have to take back all I gave away

G#m

I could have been a lover, could have been a fighter

E

But I didn t know how