Intro A, D, A, E, A

Verse

A

I wake up in the morning and I drink from the fountain.

I wake up in the morning with the same unanswered questions.

D

E

A

I don't know what's going to cure my unsettled stomach.

Street kids collect spare change in a conch shell on the side walk;
their teeth are yellow, their hair is tangled.

E

A*

Their minds are vapid and they laugh wild in their depravity.

Bm E A D
I'll make my way back home to you, head north on San Marco Avenue.

Bm E A D
White crosses on the church lawn, I want to smash them all.

A D
I want to smash them all.

A, D, A

Pony tails swinging back and forth behind beach blonde college girls out for a jog.

A

Saint Augustine, shine your light down on me!

Pop hits from the 90s echo out of tourist filled bars.

E

I am met with arms crossed under dirty looks, I am treated like a common thief.

A A*

Chorus

Fm

Eaves-dropping in on conversation, I wander aimless leering at strangers.

E

A A*

Strung out on the amphetamines that you gave to me.

Fm

Eye-balled with suspicion by a pencil skirt in high heels, you realize that you re talking to yourself.

A

Cannon fire explodes out over the bay.

Chorus
