

Fall Of The Worlds Own Optimist
Aimee Mann

Fall of the World s own Optimist/Aimee Mann

(capo up 1 fret)

C C/Bb Am Am/G#
There s no charity in you and that surprises me

C Am E
I guess I thought you were a golden idol cause I called you majesty

Am G Am
On the balustrade you watched me hunt for

D D7
Tips I was obliged to pick up from the passing trade

C F Am Am7 D7
Hey, kids--look at this it s the fall of the world s own optimist

C F Am Am7/G Bb E
I could get back up if you insist but you ll have to ask politely

Am E C

G
Cause the eggshells I ve been treading couldn t spare me a beheading

F Am Dm F Am G G7
And I ll know I had it coming from a Caesar who was only slumming

C Bb F Am D/F# F C
Hey, kids--look at this it s the fall of the world s own optimist

C C/Bb Am Am/G#
Well, I could have objections which you could override

C D/F#
But what s the point--we re only flogging the horse

E E7
When the horseman has up and died

Am G Am D
Once I testified and swore I d never leave a stone unturned

D7
I bet you re really glad that I lied

[chorus]

[solo] Am E C G F Am Dm F Am G G7

C F Am Am7 D7
Hey, kids--look at this it s the fall of the world s own optimist

C F Am Am7/G Bb E
I could get back up if you insist but you ll have to ask politely

Am Am7/G Bb E yes, you ll have to ask politely

Am Am7/G Bb

yes, you ll have to ask
