Well, today a friend told me this sorry tale
As he stood there trembling and turning pale
He said each day s harder to get on the scale sort of
Bb Am C Em
Like Jacob Marley s chain

Am Em7sus4/B C D
But it s not like life s such a veil of tears
It s just full of thoughts that act as souvenirs
For those tiny blunders made in yesteryears
Bb Am C Em
That comprise Jacob Marley s chain

Bb Am F G
Well, I had a little metaphor to state my case
It encompassed the condition of the human race
Cm Bb F C
But to my dismay, it left without a trace
Bb Am D E7
Except for the sound of Jacob Marley s chain.

Now there is no story left for me to tell
So I think I d rather just go on to hell
Where there s a snowball s chance that the personnel
Bb Am C Em
Might help to carry Jacob Marley s chain
Down to carry Jacob Marley s chain

Down to carry Jacob Marley s chain
