

Medicine Wheel
Aimee Mann

Originally tabbed by macka from the Aimee Mann message board. Formatted by myself.

Medicine Wheel / Aimee Mann

Intro " Em / D / C / Bm / A

G D
The day you left and you called me bitch
Em C
I called you selfish - Better pull that switch
G F C F-C
Put my son on amphetamines
G D
He came home cryin'™ and there's™ your proof
Em C
Crying 'bout nothing but missing tooth
G F C F-C
I did the right thing
D
You shade the truth almost every day
Em D C
Phone calls at night, "It's gonna be OK".

G
Are you signing, baby,
F C F-C
Under the bridge?
G
Are you signing, baby,
F C F-C
On Lake Street?
Em
Black marker on cardboard
C C/B Am
Little drawing of a medicine wheel
G D C
Well, everything that's™ given you steal
G D C
Everything that's™ given, you steal

G D
Maybe you'll wake up in jail alone
Em C
And hold the handle of the one pay phone
G F C F-C

And do the right thing

G

D

Like I once tried though I bent the truth

Em

C

A five dollar debt for a little lost tooth

G

F

C

F-C

There's a payback in front of me

D

'Cause once you were like a walking heart,

Em

D

C

Breaking in motion through the parking lot

[CHORUS]

[SOLO " use the same progression as the verse]

D

Words of encouragement are just as real

Em

D

C

Same effect as a smooth blue pill

[CHORUS]

G

D

C

Everything that's given you steal

G

D

C

Everything that's given you steal

G

D

Em

C

G

From me.