

Mr. Harris
Aimee Mann

G G/F C/E Cm/Eb

G G/F# G/E G/D Am C Am C
So he s retired lives with his sister in a furnished flat
He s got this suit that he ll never wear outside without a hat
Em C G D
his hair is white but he looks half his age
Em C G Dm F
he looks like Jimmy Stewart in his younger days

A9 Cm G A C Cm G G7
And honestly, I might be stupid to think love is love but I do
And you ve waited so long and I ve waited long enough for you

G/F G/E G/Eb

G G/F# G/E G/D Am C Am C
My mother s calling from where she s living up in Troy, Vermont
She tries to tell me a father figure must be what I want
Em C G D
I ve always thought age makes no difference
Em C G Dm F
Am I the only one to whom that s making sense?

A9 Cm G A C Cm G G7
And honestly, I might be stupid to think love is love but I do

A9 Cm G A C Cm G Em
And you ve waited so long and I ve waited long enough for you

B C# D# Em D C G Am C
The day I met him he was raking leaves in his tiny yard

G G/F# G/E G/D Am C Am C 2x

G G/F# G/E G/D Am C Am C
Of course I know that we ve only got ten years, or twenty left
But to be honest I m happy with whatever time we get
Em C G D
Depending on whichever book you read
Em C G Dm F
Sometimes it takes a lifetime to get what you need.

A9 Cm G A C Cm G G7
And honestly, I might be stupid to think love is love but I do
And you ve waited so long and I ve waited long enough for you

A9 Cm G A C Cm G G/F
And honestly, I might be stupid to think love is love but I do

And you ve waited so long and I ve waited long enough for you

G/E G/Eb G G/F G/E G/Eb G
For you 0o-oo