C G Em7 A7

C                                  G                                  Em7                                  A7
I don t know how to break the news but its pretty clear you ll be asked to choose between
What you lack and what you excuse in this tug of war
You can t say that they didn t warn you though you d rather that they just ignore you
Cause your devices are not working for you anymore

chorus:

C A7 C                  G
What you want you don t know
Em7          A7 C G
You re with stupid now

C                                  G                                  Em7                                  A7
You don t know how to manufacture sturdy bones with a hairline fracture
The crazy will of a Margaret Thatcher that they ve all got
And though you pay for the hands they re shaking the speeches and the mistakes they re making
As they struggle with the undertaking of simple thought

[chorus 2x]

[solo] C G Em7 A7 4x

C A7 C                  G
What you want you don t know
Em7          A7 C G
You re with stupid now

C A7 C                  G
What you know you don t want to know
Em7          A7                  C                  G
You re with stupid now so on with the show
