

Society

Ainslie Wills

[Verse 1]

Bb

What am I doing with my life?

Gm

I feel like I should be

Hitting some kind of mark

Eb

Then the house, the car

F

It all feels kinda off

Gm Eb Gm Eb

Gm

Bb

Outside, walking the street at night

Gm

Trying to get these fears out of my mind

Eb

You don't know what it's like

F

Trying to please a million people all the time

[Pre-Chorus]

Gm

Dm

Eb

I'd always done exactly what I'm told

Gm

Dm

Eb

But that ain't gonna work for me no more

[Chorus]

Bb

I blame it on society

Gm

Trying to tell me who I'm supposed to be

Eb

Why they always got to put these clothes on me?

F

The ones that care enough, well they ain't even close to me

Gm

Bb

I blame it on society

Gm

I need a break from this anxiety

Eb

I just want someone to love me quietly

F

To who I m for real enough for who I try to be

Bb

Eb Bb F

I blame it on society

[Verse 2]

Bb

Sitting in a lukewarm bath

Blowing bubbles

Gm

Stinking rays of thoughts

My body s aching

Eb

I m all alone

F

I call you up and I cry for home

Bb

But what is home anymore?

Gm

What is this life we re looking for?

Eb

I feel I want to make it known

F

That I might disappoint you

And I m sorry if I do

[Pre-Chorus]

Gm

Dm

Eb

I d always done exactly what I m told

Gm

Dm

Eb

But that ain t gonna work for me no more

[Chorus]

Bb

I blame it on society

Gm

Trying to tell me who I m supposed to be

Eb

Why they always got to put these clothes on me?

F

The ones that care enough, well they ain t even close to me

[Instrumental]

Bb Gm Eb F

[Pre-Chorus]

Gm Dm Eb
I d always done exactly what I m told
Gm Bb Eb
But that ain t gonna work for me no more

[Chorus]

Bb
I blame it on society
Gm
Trying to tell me who I m supposed to be
Eb
Why they always got to put these clothes on me?
F
The ones that care enough, well they ain t even close to me

Gm Bb
I blame it on society
Gm
I need a break from this anxiety
Eb
I just want someone to love me quietly
F
To who I m for real enough for who I try to be

Bb Eb Bb F
I blame it on society