C C/B Am F C
No one will know how evil I really am
No one will know how evil I really am

F G
Cause I like to wear disguises

Am
And I like to disguise my plans
F G C
No one will know how evil I really am

C C/B Am F C
And no one will know truly how I feel
C C/B Am F C
And no one will know how I truly feel

F G
Cause I can no longer differentiate
Am F
Between what is fake and what is real
G C E7
I don't know how I feel

C C/B Am F C
I was born in a hospital
C C/B Am F C
My first two days were spent in the care of nuns
F G
But my mother found it in her
Am
To go ahead and take me back
F G C E7
And I love her

F G C-C/B-Am-G F G C

C C/B Am F C
And I will always appreciate bad days like this
C C/B Am F C
Because they grant me a point of reference in regards to my happiness

And although I feel cold and empty one day

Am

I hope I can feel warm and full
