

Human Kittens

AJJ (Andrew Jackson Jihad)

Alright, so the song is originally in the key of G, using the chords G, C, and F. that order. I have tabbed the song 3 steps higher, in the key of A using the chords A, F#m, E. This is because I like to sing along (I m a girl with a voice naturally higher than original key), and I don t have a capo at the moment. To play it in the original key, substitute the chords in the order above. Hope it isn t too confusing! Play well and love. This is a great song.

A

I knew a woman once

F#m

giving birth to kittens and mice

A

F#m

and as you know their eating habits

A

E

Those poor mice had to die

A

so the kittens were born

F#m

full of their brothers and sisters

A

And they were punished swiftly

E

F#m

though they did not know why

A

F#m

A

They thought they were food

F#m

E

they did not know what they d done

A

And I was a person once

F#m

sending off unread letters

E

A

receiving no reply

F#m A

F#m

never bothering asking why

A

I had a heart once

F#m

full of fire and passion

E

A

F#m

but the summer took it away from me

A

F#m

A

And autumn has come to retrieve it

A

F#m

E

autumn has come to retrieve it

A

And I was a man once

F#m

When I was six-years-old

A

F#m

but now I am just a boy

E

A

F#m

pretentious and brash and bold

A

The kittens were murdered

F#m

thrown into burlap sacks

A

and weighted down with rocks

E

A

F#m

in a river deep and black

A

F#m

A

And they went to Heaven.

A F#m

E

A

They went to Heaven.
