[Verse]
hey everything, fuck you i hate everything you do to me i despise every lie i ve come to believe and i hate every evil thing that i see this juxtaposition of good and bad remind me of the best and the worst dreams i ve had i m either to happy or fucking sad and i can t keep up with that and my job what a shame just a mountain of death filling up my brain i m always tied to the tracks of the train desperately afraid of going insane [Chorus]
