

Oldey Timey

AJJ (Andrew Jackson Jihad)

Tuning: standard

This is what my brother and I figured out for this song. Feel free to post corrections. This is also my first time posting chords, so lets hope all goes well with formatting. Have fun with it

Intro/Trombone solo: C Am F G F G C Cmaj7 Am F G C Am C C Am C
(listen to song for timing, its kinda hard to describe)

C Am F G
I ve had a bad day, I am ashamed, And I m afraid
F G C Cmaj7 Am F G C Am C C Am C
And I am drained of what was named self-respect

C
If the bridge that I was driving over
Am F
Collapsed while I was driving over it
G
That may not be such a bad thing
F G
I would finally meet my maker
C Cmaj7 Am
I could meet the great creator
F G C Am C C
Am C
And I d punch him for teaching me how to sing

C
And my body would be at the bottom
Am
Of a lake in West Virginia
F G
Instead of the bottom of this bottle that I drink

F G
I don t have a drinking problem
C Cmaj7 Am
Don t have a drinking solution
F G C Am C C Am C
I don t think I ever learned to think

C

And no one knows

Am

What it's like to be

F

G

Anybody but themselves

F G

No one

C Cmaj7 Am

No-o one

F G

C Am C C Am C

No-o one else

(Thank you)
