[Instrumental]

E G C
E G C
E G C F
E G C    G C

[Verse]

G                E                G                C
I ve got the rotten apple core feeling
    E                G                C
Dying like a living ghost
            E                G                C                F
Now I m lying on the ground not making a sound
    E                G                C                C G
Thinking I love you the most

[Chorus]

F G                C                E                E
And I hope our candles flicker and die
    F G                C                E                E
So that our hearts don t burn to the ground
    E                F
Down, down, just like Randy s house.

[Instrumental]

C G E
E G C
C G E
E G C    G C

[Verse]

G                E                G                C
When you kissed me on the cheek with a gun
    E                G                C
I became a setting sun
            E                G                C                F
Now you re heading west bound while I m lying on the ground
    E                G                C                C G

Thinking you were the one.

[Chorus]

F G                C          E          E
And I hope our candles flicker and die
    F G                C                E                E
So that our hearts don t burn to the ground
    E                                F
Down, down, just like Randy s house.

[Instrumental]

C G E
E G C
C G E
E G C G C G C G
G

[Chorus]

F G                C          E          E
And I hope our candles flicker and die
    F G                C                E                E
So that our hearts don t burn to the ground
    E                                F                                F
Down, down, just like Randy s house.
