I like looking at the sky as the wind plays through
F#m E
The skirts of the trees the silence knows how afraid we are of it
A Bm F#m E A
Cherished memories bleed and bloom our secrets like seeds
Bm F#m E A
get swept up and carried through our neighborhood

Safe as houses tuck me in
A Bm E F#m E
Daylight waits for no man youâ€™re still young
F#m
and breathingâ€™s easy suck it in
A Bm E
what a waste this facade
A E F#m
What a pity weâ€™ve come this far

F#m E

F#m E
The rain will fall and baptize our strongholds our sheltered lives
F#m E
Closed blinds drawn curtains and vinyl floors canâ€™t hide
A Bm F#m E A
Stained memories bleed and bloom our secrets like weeds
Bm F#m E A
Creeps up to the roof of our neighborhood

What a pity weâ€™ve come this far how luscious denial our devoured minds
F#m E A
Our thoughts remain impotent our pillows stay fertile
