Tuning:Standard

There s so many colors without the dirty windows (x alot of times)

(Alright there s a crazy solo here and it fades into a simple A to G progression...)

A G
shades of purple mainly
But clarity is sharpness too
All the mountains just push right through
Herds of elk to return to the plains
Plainly sky shades blue
Endlessly mountains they plane towards the sky
Endlessly plains parallel sky
And illusory appear to meet
Illusory all points arise
But not point exists
No point exists...

E E
No Point...

(riffin around a bit)

G E G A E
Sun rise Sun set- Sun ever set and rise to reach (repeat)

I got tired before I could figure out the last part, but I believe it changes over to D. I m not gonna tab out all the crazy solos and stuff, but this is the gist of it.
