Tuning:Standard

There s so many colors without the dirty windows (x alot of times)

(Alright there s a crazy solo here and it fades into a simple A to G progression...)

G# F#
shades of purple mainly
 But clarity is sharpness too
 All the mountains just push right through
 Herds of elk to return to the plains
 Plainly sky shades blue
Endlessly mountains they plane towards the sky
Endlessly plains parallel sky
 And illusory appear to meet
 Illusory all points arise
 But not point exists
 No point exists...

Eb Eb
No Point...

(riffin around a bit)

F# Eb F# G# Eb
Sun rise Sun set- Sun ever set and rise to reach (repeat)

I got tired before I could figure out the last part, but I believe it changes over to D. I m not gonna tab out all the crazy solos and stuff, but this is the gist of it.
