

Terminal Eyes

Al Stewart

Terminal Eyes -Al Stewart Tuning half step down

Intro G Csus C 2x

G Csus
Cut glass porcupine sailing on the Serpentine
C G
Fingers on the skyline pulling down the black blinds
Csus C G7
Terminal eyes at the edge of the night
G Csus
Rivulet of dark wine moving in a straight line
C G
Smudging out the stop signs, running down the life lines
Csus C G7
Terminal eyes at the edge of the night
A A7
Shadows on the ceiling, coffee cup congealing
F A
Tarot cards revealing, a solitary feeling
F G A7
Terminal eyes, but I think it s alright
D D7
Silver studded jet plane screaming through the migraine
Bbmaj7 D
Cutting through the cellophane, wrappers of your tired brain
F G A A7
Terminal eyes - put out the light
C Eb F Ab Bb C
Terminal eyes Only the lonely Arabian skies
C Eb F Ab Bb C D Intro
Terminal eyes Calling you home from your restless disguise

Hands of the windmill moving to a standstill
Rain on the windowsill, ashes on the phone bill
Terminal eyes at the edge of the night
Rain drop fire flies sparkle on the shop blinds
Echoes of the summertime flicker in the street-signs
Terminal eyes at the edge of the night
Shadows on the ceiling, coffee cup congealing
Eyes that look unseeing, hands that look unfeeling
Terminal eyes, I think it s alright
Silver-studded sea plane breaking through the migraine
Cutting through the cellophane, enveloping your tired brain
Terminal eyes, put out the light
Terminal eyes only the lonely Arabian skies
Terminal eyes calling you home from your restless disguise

Terminal eyes only the lonely Arabian skies
Terminal eyes calling you home from your restless disguise
adriemeijer@yahoo.com