

1976

Alan Jackson

Artist: Alan Jackson

Song: 1976

Album: Good Time

Intro: A D E A E A

A D E
Rocky burned up the movie screen and I was turnin seventeen

A D E
Tie-dyed shirts and Levis jean, lookin cool at the Dairy Queen

A D E
Tryin to impress a young woman in her Sunday dress

Chorus:

D A
And that was 1976, didn t know who I was yet

E A
A pretty little blonde haired girl stole my heart and changed my world

D A
Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night

E D A
Built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

Solo: A D E A E A

A D E
My high school days I packed away, set my sights on a bigger stage

A D E
Jimmy Carter moved to DC, a Georgia boy just like me,

A D E
Life seemed easy nothin much that we needed

Repeat Chorus again:

That was 1976, didn t know who I was yet
A pretty little blonde haired girl stole my heart and changed my world

Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night
Built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

[Instrumental - Interlude]    A   D   A   E   A   D   A   E   D   A

A D E
Eight track tapes were still in style and Elvis was still alive

A	D	E
Wonder Woman	sure looked fine,	Bionic Man was still Prime Time

A D E

And that girl I liked, we kept on tryin till we got it right

Repeat Chorus again:

And that was 1976, didn't know who I was yet
A pretty little blonde haired girl stole my heart and changed my world
Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night
Built a fire that just won't quit, that was 1976

A                      D                      A

Yeah, that was 1976, didn't know who we were yet.

E D A
Built a fire that just wont quit and that was 1976

E D A

We built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976