

Blue Ridge Mountain Song
Alan Jackson

Blue Ridge Mountain Song
Not sure if this is all perfect but its close.

[Intro]

G C G C Em

[Verse 1]

G C G
Met her in the fall of 93 in the hills of Tennessee
C Em
She was barely seventeen He was tall and strong and lean
C Em D
They were deep in love by June Hand in hand beneath that moon

[Chorus]

G C
And she d sing a little blue ridge mountain song
G C
And he d just hum along. They d dance all night til dawn
Em C
On a hillside all alone, they were young and they were free
Em C
Like a mountain melody True lovers they could be
D G
Singin that blue ridge song.

[Instrumental]

G C G C Em

[Verse 2]

G C G
Married in her momma s wedding gown, bought a house and settled down
C Em
He was drivin all around, haulin logs from town to town
C
And he d come home every night,
Em D
She d be waiting in the front porch light

[Chorus]

G

C

And she d sing a little blue ridge mountain song
G C
And he d just hum along. They d dance all night til dawn
Em C
On a hillside all alone, they were young and they were free
Em C
Like a mountain melody True lovers they could be
D G
Singin that blue ridge song.

[Instrumental]

G C G C Em

[Verse 3]

G C G
They couldn t tell him what was wrong. They just didn t know.
C Em
It wasn t very long, til Jesus called her home
C
Then he got down on his knees,
Em C D
God don t take my love from me, Just let her

[Chorus]

G C
sing a little blue ridge mountain song
G
Like she has all along.
C Em
Iâ€™ll dance with her til dawn, On a hillside all alone
C Em
And we ll spend eternity, like a mountain melody
C
In love as we can be
D G
singin that blue ridge song

[Verse 4]

G C G
Now he lives there all alone, in the house that they called home
C Em
In his heart there lies a void, from the absence of her voice
C
And he lays down every night,

[Chorus]

Em C D
And dreams about that front porch light

Where she d ^G sing a little blue ridge mountain song. ^C

And he d just hum along, ^G they d dance all night til dawn ^C
