

Hard Hat And A Hammer
Alan Jackson

Capo 2nd Fret

Just the same 3 chords over and over.

(Intro) D G A (2x)

D G A
Laced up boots, faded jeans.
D G A
Homemade sandwich, and half a jug of tea.
D G A
Average joe, average pay.
D G A
Same old end, same old day.

(Chorus)

D G A
But there s nothin wrong with a hard hat and hammer.
D G A
That kind of glue that sticks this world together.
D G A
Hands of steel, and cradle of the promised land...
A (let it ring out)
God bless the workin man.

D G A (2x)

D G A
All week long, making a livin .
D G A
Life keeps taking, he keeps giving
D G A
Behind the scene, below the grade
D G A
Hardly noticed but part of everything

(Chorus)

D G A
But there s nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer
D G A
Kind of glue that sticks this world together
D G A
Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land
A (let it ring out)
God bless the working man

(Solo) D G A (3x)

D G A
He gives his life then fades away

D G A
Another young man takes his place

D G A
Average Joe, average pay

D G A
Same ol end, same old day

(Chorus)

D G A
But there s nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer

D G A
Kind of glue that sticks this world together

D G A
Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land

D G A
No, there s nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer

D G A
Kind of glue that sticks this world together

D G A
Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land

A (let it ring out)

God bless the working man

D G A (3x) To the next verse

The working man

Oh, the working man and woman