

You Go Your Way
Alan Jackson

Fantastic new country song by Alan Jackson on his new CD (Thirty Miles West).
Played this today with a buddy of mine along with the CD and we both think this should be correct.

Artist: Alan Jackson
Song Title: You Go Your Way

Intro: D G Em A (2 times)

D
All you pretty bags are packed
G A
Forever sure did go by fast
D
I hope you find the skies are blue
G A
The grass is green and the road is smooth

Chorus:

D G
You go your way, c est la vie sweet baby
A D
Here s hoping that you don t hate me
D G A A Asus
Who knows you might just maybe miss me out there
D G
It ain t about who s right or wrong
A D
Love dies and life goes on
G A A
Had a good thing, but now it s a long gone baby
Em A D G Em A
You go your way, and I ll go crazy

Verse 2 (same as above chord progression)

I poured some bourbon in a coffee cup
It s been too long since I drink too much
So here s to me and here s to the moon
And here s to love that ends too soon

Chorus:

D G
 You go your way, c'est la vie sweet baby
A D
 Here s hoping that you don t hate me
D G A A Asus
 Who knows you might just maybe miss me out there
D G
 It ain t about who s right or wrong
A D
 Love dies and life goes on
G A
 Had a good thing, but now it s a long gone baby
Em A D G Em A
 You go your way, and I ll go crazy

Solo:

D G
 Yeah, it ain t about who s right or wrong,
A D
 Love dies and life goes on
G A Asus
 Had a good thing but now it s a long gone baby
Em A D G Em A
 You go your way, and I ll go crazy
D G Em A D
 Yeah, I ll go crazy
