

Justice
Alan Price

(intro) D A7 D A7

D A7 D A7
We all want justice but you got to have the money to buy it
D A7 D A7
You d have to be a fool to close your eyes and deny it
D A7 D A7
There s a lot of poor people who are walking the streets of my town
D A7 D A7 D7
Too blind to see that justice is used to do them right down

G F#m
All life from beginning to end
A7 D7
You pay your monthly installments
G F#m
Next to health is wealth
A7 D
And only wealth will buy you justice

(D A7 D A7)

D A7 D A7
There ll always be a fool who insists on taking his chances
D A7 D A7
And that is the man who believes in true love romances
D A7 D A7
He will trust and rely on the foodness of human nature
D A7 D A7 D7
Now a judge will tell you that s a pathetic creature

G F#m
All life from beginning to end
A7 D
You pay your monthly installments
G F#m
Next to health is wealth
A7 D
And only wealth will buy you justice

D A7
Money, justice
D A7
Money and justice
D A7
Money, justice
