Guardian by Alanis Morissette

Intro G D C Am7

G C
You, you who has smiled when you're in pain
G C
You who has soldiered through the profane
G C G C
They were distracted and shut down

G C
So why, why would you talk to me at all
G C
such words were dishonorable and in vain
G C
their promise as solid as a fog

C9
and where was your watchman then

G D C Am7
I'll be your keeper for life as your guardian
G D C Am7
I'll be your warrior of care your first warden
G D C Am7
I'll be your angel on call, I'll be on demand
G D C Am7
The greatest honor of all, as your guardian

G C
You, you in the chaos feigning sane
G C
You who has pushed beyond what's humane
G C G
Them as the ghostly tumbleweed

C9
And where was your watchman then

G D C Am7
I'll be your keeper for life as your guardian
G D C Am7
I'll be your warrior of care your first warden
G D C Am7

I'll be your angel on call, I'll be on demand

G                    D                    C                    Am7

The greatest honor of all, as your guardian

G                    C

Now no more smiling mid crestfall

G                    C

No more managing unmanageables

G                    C                    G

No more holding still in the hailstorm

C9

Now enter your watchwoman

G                    D                    C                    Am7

I'll be your keeper for life as your guardian

G                    D                    C                    Am7

I'll be your warrior of care your first warden

G                    D                    C                    Am7

I'll be your angel on call, I'll be on demand

G                    D                    C                    Am7

The greatest honor of all, as your guardian
